Deer hunting on Wildlife Management Areas, state parks, other public lands, and federally controlled areas

This administrative regulation establishes deer hunting seasons, limits, and equipment restrictions under which deer may be taken on wildlife management areas, state parks, and other lands controlled by state or federal government agencies.

Significant Changes

This amendment establishes youth firearm deer hunting opportunity on the Knobs State Forest and Wildlife Management Area, opens the Grayson Lake Wildlife Management Area for the late muzzleloader season, increases the deer bag limit on Higginson-Henry Wildlife Management Area, reduces archery deer hunting pressure during October and November on the Big Rivers Wildlife Management Area, creates the ability for drawn quota hunters to bring an assistant (or a non-hunting youth observer) along on their hunt, and adjusts for calendar shifts in the Lake Barkley and Greenbo Lake State Resort Park (and January Jenny Wiley State Resort Park Mobility-impaired hunt), and the January Taylorsville Lake Wildlife Management Area Quota Deer Hunts.

(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:

(a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation: This amendment establishes youth firearm deer hunting opportunity on the Knobs State Forest and WMA, opens the Grayson Lake WMA for the late muzzleloader season, increases the deer bag limit on Higginson-Henry WMA, reduces archery deer hunting pressure during October and November on the Big Rivers WMA, creates the ability for drawn quota hunters to bring an assistant (or a non-hunting youth observer) along on their hunt, and adjusts for calendar shifts in the Lake Barkley and Greenbo Lake State Resort Park (and January Jenny Wiley State Resort Park Mobility-impaired hunt), and the January Taylorsville Lake WMA Quota Deer Hunts.

(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: This amendment is necessary to maximize hunter opportunity without harm to the deer resource.

(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: See (1)(c) above.

(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: See (1)(d) above.

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation: For the 2014-15 deer season, there were 271,812 resident and 21,568 non-resident Kentucky deer hunters.
